A. Introduction

Literature work is an artwork that expresses the existence of human being with all their variations and twists creatively and imaginatively using aesthetic language as its medium (Ali Imron and Farida, 2017). Literature work is artwork which use language element as its media element and literatute work is also functioned as a media to contemplate the deepest values of reader. Because literature work contains humans’ experiences, so those experiences are expressed is such a way to gain the desired quintessence (Emzir and Saifur Rohman, 2015). A literature work has various kinds of type, one of forms of literature work is novel. Novel is a form of literature work, in its creation has tight relationship or bond with its author. It is because the author who becomes the main factor in the birth of a literature work (Wellek and Warren, 1989).

Novel is a form of literature work that presents various problems of life in form of narration or storyline. Furthermore, novel has supporting elements in it namely neatly arranged intrinsic and extrinsic element. Novel also contains various problems and conflicts in it. It makes novel as a literature work that attracts attention of readers or literature lover (Yohanes, 2017). A literature work in the form of a novel can also be studied from various approaches, one of them is literary pragmatic approach. Literary pragmatic approach has benefit on function of the spread and development of literature in society which aims so that the advantage of the literary work can be felt by society (Yohanes, 2017). It shows that the goal of literary pragmatic approach can give a benefit to readers through relationship of literature work with the readers themselves.

Besides, one of the main points that often becomes a problem in a novel is moral value contained in it. In the perspective of life, moral is a very important element. The work moral always refers to the good and bad of humans as humans. The presentation of moral in a literature work by the author can be done through character activity or author’s direct narration. Talking about moral value, in this era there are so many moral degradations in various circles. The example of moral degradation in this era is lack of respect in behaviour and decrease of etiquette.
Similarly, lack of respect from young people on the older people both in behaviour and interaction in social society.

One of literature works that can be studied through a literary pragmatic approach and contains a lot of moral value problem in it is a novel by one of famous authors that is Charon entitled 3.600 Detik. Besides, the reason the author chose this novel as studied object is because this novel is very interesting to be researched about various elements of moral value contained in it. Charon was born in Sukabumi City and he once studied at Informatics System Study Program at Bina Nusantara University and now he is living in Sukabumi with his parents. C. Result & Discussion

1. Result

Data gained by researcher after doing research on Novel 3600 Detik by Charon was form of moral value delivery as well as its form and effect for readers based on literary pragmatic approach.

a. Form of Moral Value Delivery Used By the Author in Novel 3600 Detik By Charon Seen From Literary Pragmatic Study

Form of moral value delivery used by the author in Novel 3600 Detik consists of direct delivery and indirect delivery.

1) Form of Direct Delivery

Form of moral delivery in a novel consists of 2 types namely through author and through character.
a) Author’s Description

Charon as the author of novel 3600 Detik has given a lot of benefits especially for touch of morality that can be accepted directly by readers and directly touch readers’ heart or literature lover. The example is like the following quotes.

“Sandra shouted within her heart while looking at gym room ceiling. She does not know for how long she has been there. One thing for sure, she has been skipping class since this morning. She smokes while sitting in the edge of window, trying to remember how many ciggarates that she smoked. Frankly she does not remember, similarly when she does not remember how many schools she got into since last year. All of them never lasted more than ten days.” (Charon, 2012: 7)

Based on the data above, the author directly describes the aspect of morality shown by Sandra character who has bad personality or bad moral values such as smoking, skipping class, and being naughty which is surely can not be imitated by readers. Through the data the author also reminds readers that what is seen from Sandra character is not a good moral in life and can not be imitated.

(1) Sandra

The existence of Sandra character in this novel gives important influence on other characters in the novel. As in the following quote.

“I will accompany you. I promise I will be fine even though you are not operated successfully! So do not worry and do your surgery calmly.” (Charon, 2012: 191)

In the data above Sandra character puts big attention and care on Leon who is the one and only friend of her at school. It can be seen when Leon will be operated, Sandra is the one who keeps motivating and accompanying Leon in order to stay motivated to get cured and he also considers Leon more than a friend but an angel who is able to change her to be better.

(2) Leon

Leon is the second main character after Sandra in Novel 3600 Detik. Leon is also a teenager with a lot of achievements at his school and arguably a good and smart student. It is proved in the following quote.

“I just want to be your friend, if you do not want to be my friend, it is okay! I understand! I will wait until you want to be my friend!” (Charon, 2012: 40)

From the data above it is seen that Leon really wants to be Sandra’s friend, although he knows that Sandra is a naughty student who likes skipping class at his school but Leon does not care with all of those. As a good student Leon does not choose to make friend with anyone, instead by him getting closer with Sandra so the bigger Sandra’s change to be better.

(3) Mr. Donny

Mr. Donny is Sandra’s homeroom teacher who is a close teacher with all his students and a teacher who is motivational and very educative in this novel.

“Enjoy your youth! Make friend as many as possible! Mr. Donny said (Charon, 2012: 39)

The data above shows that Mr. Donny on Sandra obviously gives a motivation for readers. If studied through the aspect of morality Mr. Donny’s saying in the quote above contains moral value for readers that is motivating other people in order not to be a person who is individual but must be able to be a social person dan make friend with anyone regardless of caste and position in life.

(4) Widia

Widia character is a parent or mother from Sandra character in novel 3600 Detik. In aspect of morality parents’ concern on children is a precious form of love that readers can take message from in living daily life. It is proved through the following quote.

“I understand that you are sad. But at least talk to me. It is almost 1 year your behaviour does not change. I care about you!” (Charon, 2012: 19)

The data above explains that Widia really cares about her daughter Sandra. Widia is not so close with her son and conflicts often occur between both of them but Widia’s concern and love on her daughter are still poured out even though Sandra never realizes.

2) Indirect Delivery

Indirect moral delivery found in novel 3600 Detik is presented through event and conflict in the novel.

a) Event

One of amazing events in the novel is when Sandra knows that Leon has cardiac disease. That event gives interesting example of morality that is high value of friendship and caring attitude in a friendship and readers can take a quite meaningful moral value. As seen in the following quote.

Looking at Leon’s pale face, Sandra gets really scared
"Do not talk anymore Leon" Sandra said. "We arrive at hospital in a moment! Hold on!
After that Leon lost consciousness "Leonnn!!!" Sandra shouted loudly (Charon, 2012: 193)
The quote above shows loyalty in friendship of Sandra character. Sandra’s caring attitude and friendship are shown in an event where she always accompanies even worries about Leon’s condition. Until the last seconds for Leon, Sandra always accompanies her friend.

b) Conflict
Conflict that happen in novel 3600 Detik by Charon is inner conflict experienced by characters in the novel.

“A friend to share stories with is dad. So when dad left her, Sandra’s life is completely ruined. The most go-to person all this time left her life. Sandra shuts herself tight for 2 weeks. Getting out of bedroom when she wants to drink water only. She eats from outside. No talking no going to school. (Charon, 2012: 9)
A conflict in quote above contains a moral value to remind readers that problems can be solved in a family way and must be able to pay attention to good or bad impacts from decision taken especially by parents.

b. Moral Value in The Main Character in Facing Problem of Life in Novel 3600 Detik By Charon Seen From Literary Pragmatics Study
1) Not Obeying School Rules
Not obeying school rules is one of examples of bad moral value that surely can not be done.

“This is your second day at school and you have skipped the class. I have seen your personal data from previous schools. There are so many violations that you did. Smoking, fighting with friends, dressing inappropriately at school, skipping classes until five times and many more.” (Charon, 2012: 37)
In the data above is explained bad moral values in Sandra’s character. In this novel Sandra often shows bad moral values in the beginning of the story such as smoking, skipping classes, and others. In this case, the author also reminds the readers to avoid what the main character does in this novel.

2) Caring About Friends
Caring attitude toward friends in novel 3600 Detik is shown by the character through the following quote.
“I will not let you get sick again!” Sandra said. She catches Leon’s hand and put her red jacket on the man’s body quickly. (Charon, 2012: 168)

The data above also explains what Sandra character’s form of care on Leon who is her close friend, in which Sandra always looks after Leon in order not to get sick. The value of friendship between Sandra and Leon is seen clearly in this novel.

3) Never Giving Up

Unyielding attitude shown by the character in Novel 3600 Detik can be moral learning for readers. As seen in the following quote.

“I will prove that I will do the test well tomorrow! I will study right now.” (Charon, 2012: 160)

In the data above, explains about unyielding attitude shown by Sandra character. Although Sandra knows that the test is very hard for her but she does not want to give up and will prove to Leon her friend that she is able to do the test despite the difficulty.

4) Strong Determination

The attitude of strong determination is shown in the following quote.

“I am an optimistic person, Sandra! I believe it will happen.” Leon said confidently while passing by in front of Sandra (Charon, 2012: 40).

Quote in the data above shows the attitude of strong determination a Leon character. Although Sandra avoid being his friend some times in the beginning of story but Leon stays in his stance that he is able to be Sandra’s friend even though he knows that Sandra is a naughty student at his school but Leon stays in his stance that he to be Sandra’s friend who can change her to be better.

5) Being Honest

In this novel being honest is shown by the main character one of them as seen in the following quote.

Mr. Donny smiles “I appreciate your honesty to not cheat. You could do it on the test yesterday.” (Charon, 2012: 85)

In the quote above explains how honesty shown by Sandra character. Even though she was previously a naughty student at her school, but her willingness to change to be better she proves when doing the examination that is by not cheating in the test at her school.
